

Name That Animal

An experience in our own classroom!

A letter for parents...

Dear Parents:

Your child has a unique opportunity to experience an exciting program designed by the Science Eye known as Name That Animal. In our own classroom we will have an opportunity to experience an array of different animals. Our "scientists" will get a chance to identify, examine, and observe animals they may have only seen in picture books.

After this 30-45 minute presentation, your scientist will know more about what certain animals feel like, sound like, and where they live and what they eat.

The cost of this unique opportunity is $_____ per student. To ensure everyone's participation in this educational experience, please return your contribution along with the bottom of this page by the date indicated.

Yes, I want my child to participate in Name That Animal.
